

LEADING MERCHANTS TO ISSUE
MOVIE TICKETS

Patrons of the local theatres will be pleased with the announcement in connection with free tickets which are to be given away by the merchants of Paris who are co-operating with the theatre to boost the movie picture business and at the same time materially increase their own trade.

Through the efforts of the hustling manager, Miss Adaline Ward, she has made arrangements with twelve of the leading merchants of Paris to give away tickets free of charge to the movie patrons with each purchase made with them. For instance, if you make a purchase of $1.00 with any of the merchants listed below a child's ticket will be given. If you make a purchase of $3.00 you will be given an adult's ticket.

It is the intention of the manager to enlist every merchant in Paris in this splendid scheme, and those who are interested are asked to call on Miss Ward at the theatres and she will be pleased to explain the proposition to them. This will be a splendid proposition to boost business in Paris and it is to the interest of every business man in Paris to get into this proposition at once.

The twelve merchants who have already entered into this proposition will begin giving away the free tickets for Wednesday's performance, and when you make a purchase with them amounting to $1.00 or $3.00 be sure and ask for your free ticket to the movies.

The following list of merchants will begin giving free tickets Wednesday morning, September 20:

The Leader, Incorporated.
L. R. Bramblett, Staple and Fancy Groceries.
Dan Jordan, Staple and Fancy Groceries.
Curtis Henry & Co., Groceries, Meats and Notions.
The Fair.
Louis Wollstein, Men's Furnishings.
Lavin & Connell, Groceries, Hardware and Paints.
Frank & Co., Dry Goods.
G. S. Varden & Son, Druggists.

KENTUCKY FUEL COMMISSION
DISBANDED

With the closing of the headquarters of the Kentucky fuel commission Governor Edwin P. Morrow announced that he will be glad to be notified promptly of any emergency which demands immediate attention.

In commenting on the closing of the office Governor Morrow said:

"The State Committee remained in operation during the last two weeks, although without authority to control cars, in order to protect prices as far as possible. It has been enabled, however, to secure for the consumers of Kentucky a great percentage of their coal at the Hoover price of $4.50, although coal was selling in other States at from $6 to $7 and even as high as $8 per ton."

A continuation of the committee is impracticable at this time, the Governor said, because it possibly would do more harm than good.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

At the last regular meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber at the City Hall, Mayor E. B. January presided, with the following Councilmen present: Henry, Kenney, Skillman, Doyle, Speakes, Santen and Mitchell.

The term of D. C. Parrish as member of the Massie Memorial Hospital Commission having expired, he was unanimously re-elected to serve for another term of five years.

Attorney Robert C. Talbot, representing the Paris Board of Education, appeared before the Council and asked that a special election be called for the purpose of permitting the people of Paris to pass on a proposed bond issue of $50,000 for constructing needed additions to the City School building on Seventh street. Councilman Santen moved that the election be called, and his motion was seconded by Councilman Mitchell. The motion was defeated by a vote of four to three, Mitchell, Santen and Skillman in the affirmative, and Doyle, Kenney, Henry and Speakes in the negative.

City Attorney McMillan was instructed to bring suit at once to collect all unpaid licenses. Instructions were given to City Health Officer Keller to promptly enforce all sanitary ordinances. Upon recommendation of Councilman Doyle the Council ordered that the culvert on Vine street be enlarged sufficiently to take care of water. Regular monthly pay roll and monthly bills were approved and ordered paid.

SAW LOST REEL IN DREAM

(Pikeville News)
Last fall while fishing at Peyton's Creek, J. D. Caudill, veteran fisherman of Pikeville, lost a Shakespeare reel. At the time Mr. Caudill did not know whether the reel had been carried away by some one passing or whether some fish had become enticed by its musical click and decided to have hook, line, reel and all for its very own. A few weeks ago Mr. Caudill saw in a dream his favorite tackle in the shoal a short distance below where it was lost. He revealed his dream to a number of friends, and expressed faith in finding the reel in accordance with his dream.

One day last week a friend informed Mr. Caudill that Whetsel Compton, of Ford's Branch, found a reel at the spot disclosed in the dream. Before night Mr. Caudill had covered 28 miles in an effort to locate and identify the reel, which he did to the entire satisfaction of Fisherman Compton. The reel is as good as new, notwithstanding the fact that it had spent the winter beneath the turbulent waters of the Big Sandy.

KENTUCKIANS LIVE LONGEST

If you are a Kentuckian you are entitled to 2.3 years more life than the average for the country as a whole, according to statistics compiled by the Census Bureau. This applies only to masculine sex of Kentuckians, however, for Kentucky women are shown to live longer than their sisters generally throughout the nation. Boy babies born of white families in Kentucky, according to life tables compiled from the 1920 census, have an expectation of life (or in other words an average length of life) of 57.61 years, while the girl babies may look forward to an average of 57.53 years, these figures applying to either sex of Kentuckians "born and reared."

PEARL WHITE IN "A VIRGIN PARADISE"

"A Virgin Paradise," the stupendous William Fox special which made a sensation in New York, will be seen at the Alamo and Grand Thursday afternoon and night. It is a story of the jungle and of civilized hypocrisy, written for the screen by Hiram Percy Maxim, the famous inventor of the Maxim silencer and other devices. The action shifts from a palatial country place on Long Island, New York, to a lonely isle in the South Seas, where a volcano destroys the entire population with the exception of the infant heiress to $10,000,000 and her native nurse.

As a story of human passion and emotion "A Virgin Paradise" is intense. As a spectacle it is tremendous, both in the tropic scenes, the devastation of the island in a volcanic eruption and the life of the girl with lions, apes and other wild animals as her only companions, and in the wild scenes on the Long Island estate. The production of this spectacular special was directed by J. Searle Dawley.

Pearl White, the famous screen actress, is compelled to keep herself in the pink of physical condition, in order that she may be able to play the exacting roles required of her. For instance, in the new picture, "A Virgin Paradise," Miss White enacts the role of a girl raised on a South Sea island and accustomed to outdoor life. Those who admire Miss White's work will see her at her best in "A Virgin Paradise."

FRENCH DON'T LIKE SMOKING WHILE DINING

To the French eating is sacred. It is not to be profaned by smoking between courses any more than one would light up a cigar in church. A favorite story in Paris tells of a young French woman in a dining car who expressed the annoyance of the other passengers at the table when a young Englishman pulled out his pipe and calmly lit it between the fish and the meat courses.

"Pardon, Monsieur," she addressed him. "I hope it won't disturb you if I eat while you are smoking."
